Programs and Activities

- Annual Georgia Downtown Conference – sponsored jointly with DCA
- Professional Development
- Networking
- Advocacy
- Marketing / Outreach

The Georgia Downtown Association (GDA) is a non-profit association that promotes the economic redevelopment of Georgia's traditional downtowns. Through advocacy, education and marketing, GDA works to focus the public's attention on the value of downtown. GDA is an independent association that supports both public and private sector efforts targeted at enhancing Georgia's downtowns.

GDA has a number of programs that are designed to increase the opportunities for and multiply the talents of its members. Membership in the Georgia Downtown Association includes cities, downtown development authorities, businesses, professionals and other individuals interested in downtown. The Georgia Downtown Association also annually sponsors the Georgia Downtown Conference in partnership with the Georgia Department of Community Affairs.

Goals

- To conduct educational and training programs on ways to improve downtown
- To provide a forum for members to share best practices, opportunities and challenges
- To encourage the establishment of financing techniques for downtown improvements
- To promote the vital importance of Georgia's downtowns to our economy

Mission

To strengthen Georgia's downtowns through networking, advocacy and professional development

Vision

To be a forum for the empowerment and revitalization of Georgia's downtowns

Board of Directors

The GDA is governed by a 15-member Board of Directors elected annually by GDA Membership. Additionally, representatives from the Georgia Department of Community Affairs, Georgia Municipal Association, Georgia Trust for Historic Preservation, University of Georgia and Georgia Economic Developers Association serve in an ex-officio capacity. A legislative liaison is appointed annually by the Board.
